Communications: Noted

Public Works:

- 1) Water sample and pump reports are complete for July.
- 2) Martin Tree Service will be cutting the trees this week.
- 3) All scheduled roads have been chip sealed.
- 4) Waiting for word from the insurance adjustor to begin work on the Water Maintenance Building.

Water: No report.

Parks/Cemetery/Library:

- 1) Movie in the park will be on July 9th.

Streets/Census: No report.

Administration:

- 1) There were 45 yard sales in the village on the Annual Yard Sale day.

Public Safety: No report.

Ordinance:

- 1) Violations reviewed – 9 properties with grass in excess of 12”.
- 2) A resident inquired about an ordinance to stop trains sounding their horns when going through the village. This ordinance was looked into several years ago. To have such an ordinance, cement barriers would have to be installed and gate would have to overlap to keep cars from passing through. The cost to make these changes would be prohibitive.

Old Business: On a June 30th township board meeting the pending sale of their old building at 151 S. Main was discussed.

New Business: None

(Lewis/Lyons) The meeting was adjourned at 8:04 p.m.
